"An analysis of the resolution discloses that, first, if recognizes $1,000 OFFERED BY the defect in the recent house resolution, which attempted to make separate treaty with Germany by act of congress.

"Second, as an alternative proposition, it requests the president to commence negotiations for a sepa- murder or murderers of eight perrate peace with Germany.

America Imperiled. "Third, it seeks to terminate, by a paper resolution, a state of war ithout protecting American rights. "Fourth, it attempts to take advantage of the provisions of the treaty of Versailles without becoming a party to that treaty.

"Fifth, it requests the president to negotiate a separate peace with Austria. "These are the outstanding feat-ures of the resolution. If any group of leaders a year ago had dared to suggest that we should abandon our allies and negotiate a separate treaty of peace they would have found themselves isolated and discredited. Republican leaders have lost their moral sense in their mad lust for power.

Regrets 1918 Election. "There has not been one moment since November, 1918, during which America has not suffered in honor. prestige, and power as the result of the elections of that year. Since that time everything has been in confusion, and the frantic attempt of Republican leaders to find a legal method in which to do the dishonorable thing merely adds to the confusion.
